

Ujuu Artist Bio

The freeform bass scene is bigger than ever, but standing out is one thing Indianapolis, IN native Ujuu won't fail to do. Isaac Schaffer aka Ujuu has one of the most promising sounds in the underground right now and looks to continue pushing out those downtempo, experimental, and trap-hybrid heaters.

Pulling from his love of freeform experimental bass and future beats - Ujuu has developed an interesting, melodic storytelling, and downtempo sound that has earned support from the likes of Tre Justice, Duploc , Wreckno, Super Future, Electric Hawk, Capshun and more.

Coming off his recent "LOV3" release, Ujuu proves that he's not letting up anytime soon. Geared up with loads of collabs and singles as well as heading up a new label, "Solace 패밀리", Ujuu is primed and ready for a 2020 come up.
